

Hermione Jean Granger

Head, Department of Magical Law Enforcement · London, United Kingdom
hello@hermionegranger.example · hermionegranger.example

Profile

Magical-law practitioner working at the point where research becomes statute. Twenty-two years of institutional reform, creature-rights advocacy, and evidence review across the Ministry of Magic and the Wizengamot.

Experience

Head, Department of Magical Law Enforcement 2019-present

Lead 340 staff across Auror, Wizengamot Administration, and Improper Use of Magic services. Introduced recorded testimony, ended Veritaserum in sentencing, and published the first open register of Azkaban detentions.

Deputy Head, Regulation and Control of Magical Creatures 2013-2019

Authored the Elf Labour Act (2016): wage floors, refusal rights, and an independent complaints body. Negotiated the centaur border accords.

Senior Counsel, Wizengamot Reform Commission 2004-2013

Reviewed 1,100 wartime convictions; 94 were overturned. The review method is now standard practice across three ministries.

Founder, S.P.E.W. 1998-2004

Built the advocacy body that supplied the evidence base for the Elf Labour Act.

Selected writing

Who Counts as a Being? Journal of Magical Jurisprudence, 2024.

Evidence After the War. Wizengamot Review, 2022.

Against Benevolence. The Quibbler, 2020.

Education and honours

Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry, N.E.W.T.s 1998.

Order of Merlin, First Class, 1999.